SPECIAL SESSION ON

COMPUTATIONAL INTELLIGENCE IN BIOMEDICAL AND HEALTH INFORMATICS (CIBHI)

Twentieth Century witnessed the revolution of Information Technology; observers say that Human Civilization is in the verge of witnessing the Bio-medical Revolution in the Twenty-first Century. There are some Common & fatal Diseases, which if detected at early stage, can be prevented to be fatal and difficult to cure. This special session is aimed to invite Researchers and their papers towards development and discussion on expert systems for screening and Insilco Risk assessment.

Papers are invited but not restricted from the following Areas

Medical Informatics, Forensic Bioinformatics, Signal Processing approach in Biology, Computational Intelligence in Bioinstrumentation, Bioinstrumentation, Protein Informatics, Health Informatics, Computational Biology, Neural Networks in Medicine, Neural Networks in Bioinformatics

Paper Submission Guidelines

Authors are invited to submit full paper (Maximum 6 pages, double- column US letter size) as PDF using the IEEE templates. Submissions this Special Session are to be done through the TENCON. Website www.tencon2019.org
